THE RESULT IN THE STATE.

WISCONSIN TRUE TO FREEDOM.

The additional returns, received since our last issue, strengthen the confident anticipation then expressed, that the Republicans had achieved a glorious victory in Wisconsin. We see no reason to doubt that all three Republican Congressmen are elected by handsome majorities, and that we have carried both branches of the Legislature. We hope, by to-morrow, to have sufficient returns from the Second and Third Districts to settle the matter beyond all doubt.

NEW YORK AND MASSACHUSETTS! Look at Them!

The EMPIRE STATE and the OLD BAY STATE gave most emphatic verdicts, on Tuesday, against the BUCHANAN Administration and the bogus Democracy. MASSACHUSETTS re-elected Gov. BANKS by some thirty-two thousand majority, and sends an unbroken Republican delegation to Congress. NEW YORK elects MORGAN, (Republican) Governor, by from 25,000 to 30,000 majority, and a very large majority of Republican Representatives in Congress. In both States the BUCHANAN faction is left in a hopeless minority.

NEW JERSEY TOO!

The Freemen of New Jersey have returned a unanimous verdict against the BUCHANAN Administration and Sham-Democracy. The Opposition elect every Member of Congress, five in number, and carry both branches of the State Legislature, by overwhelming majorities. Mr. BUCHANAN has not a single Northern State left. Never did a President receive a more emphatic popular rebuke.

The First Congressional District.

The following is the approximate result in this District, as compared with the vote two years ago:

	1856.		1858.
Counties.	Potter (R.)	Hadley (D.)	Potter	Brown
Milwaukee	———	4129 maj.	———	682 maj.
Racine	630 maj.	———	601 maj.	———
Kenosha	674 "	———	650 "	———
Waukesha	942 "	———	447 "	———
Walworth	2,292 "	———	2,000 "	———

Two years ago POTTER's majority in the District was 806. Now, it probably exceeds three thousand. We call that a respectable gain.

County Officers for the Ensuing Term.

Sheriff—A. J. LANGWORTHY.
Clerk of Court—MATTHEW KEENAN.
County Treasurer—GARRET BARRY.
Register of Deeds—SAMUEL WAGGLI.
District Attorney—DIGHTON CORSON.
Clerk of Supervisors—CHAS. F. KASTEN.
County Surveyor—JOHN GREGORY.
Coroner—DUNCAN C. REED.

JACK LANGWORTHY, the Sheriff elect, is a Republican. GARRET BARRY, our next County Treasurer, ran as an Independent Candidate.—They are both honest and capable, and will make excellent officers. The other County Officers elect were the regular Democratic nominees. To MESSRS. KEENAN, CORSON and REED, there was no opposition; and the competitors of MESSRS. WAGGLI and GREGORY were brought into the field at so late an hour as to make success impossible.

ASSEMBLYMEN ELECTED.—The Members of Assembly elect, from Milwaukee County, are as follows:

First and Seventh Wards—EDWIN PALMER, (Republican.)
Second Ward—C. J. KERN (Independent.)
Third Ward—T. H. EVISTON, (Independent.)
Fourth Ward—J. A. SWAIN, (Republican.)
Fifth and Eighth Wards—WM. S. CROSS, (Republican.)
Sixth and Ninth Wards—JOSEPH WALTERS, (Democrat.)
Wauwatosa and Greenfield—EDWARD HASEL, (Democrat.)
Milwaukee and Granville—FRED MOSCOWITZ, (Democrat.)
Lake, Oak Creek and Franklin—JACOB BECK, (Democrat.)

Last year, the Assemblymen from this County stood, 8 Democrats, 1 Republican. This year, 3 Republicans, 4 Democrats and 2 Independents.

CICERO COMSTOCK, Republican, is elected to the Senate from the Fifth District (North half of Milwaukee County) by 162 majority over JACKSON HADLEY, (Dem.,) and in place of A. GRETTICH, Democrat.

CARL SCHURZ.—Where all worked so faithfully and well, as did the Republicans of Milwaukee in Tuesday's great fight, it would seem invidious to discriminate, or to single out one man for the commendation in which so many are entitled to a share. And yet we are sure that every Republican will agree with us in the opinion that to no one is a larger share of the credit due, than to the gifted and eloquent CARL SCHURZ. He came among us, on Saturday, and remained here till the morning of election day; and in that interval he wrought wonders.

He spoke to meeting after meeting of his German countrymen, in the Second, Sixth and Ninth Wards, with a power, eloquence and effect which proved irresistible. Two years ago, those three wards, in which four-fifths of the voters are Germans, gave HADLEY, Democrat, for Congress, a majority of 1652. This year, the majority for BROWN was only 465—a gain of 1137.

We rejoice to learn that Mr. SCHURZ is about to make Milwaukee his home. He will be most cordially welcomed here by men of all parties who appreciate his abilities and admire his character.

THE CAPITAL GAVING IN.—While nearly all portions of our State, so far as heard from, send in good reports of Tuesday's work, Madison and Dane County show a heavy Republican loss. Evidently the location of the Capitol at Madison has corrupted the political morals of Dane county. We trust that, for the sake of the few surviving Republicans in that region, our next Republican Legislature will remove the Capital, and thus disinfect Madison and Dane county.

TERRIBLE MURDER AT CINCINNATI.—On Saturday evening last, says the Commercial, a woman of doubtful fame was murdered at Cincinnati, by two young men named SMITH and COCK. The former beat and kicked her most outrageously, when the latter completed the murder by stabbing her with a knife. Cook is the son of an esteemed and wealthy citizen. The murdered woman is said to have been formerly a mistress of Yankee Sullivan, who committed suicide in San Francisco. The murderers were arrested.

It will be seen by footing up the above that 4,239 votes were polled in county for POTTER, and 4,809 for BROWN, giving the Democratic nominee only 670 majority in Milwaukee county! Two years ago HADLEY's majority against POTTER in the county was 4,129—showing a democratic loss of 3,459 in two years!

The aggregate vote for Senator is

Comstock	3,852
Hadley	2,188
Comstock's majority,	165

The same District two years ago gave HADLEY 2,467 majority! Mr. COMSTOCK is a staunch Republican, and was nominated only two days before election. The result is justly considered one of the greatest political revolutions on record.

ANDREW J. LANGWORTHY, the People's candidate for Sheriff, is elected by 295 majority, over BADE, the regular Democratic nominee. Mr. LANGWORTHY is also a Republican, and an old resident. His election gives very general satisfaction to all parties.

GARRET BARRY, independent candidate for County Treasurer, is elected by a majority of 550. The "regular" nominee is nowhere.

The other Democratic nominees are elected. There were no opposing candidates for the offices of Clerk of the Circuit Court and District Attorney.

Waukesha County—First Assembly District.

	P. Sawyer, Rep.	O. Reed, Dem.
Oconomowoc,	177	162
Summit,	95	120
Delafield,	162	80
To ale,	434	362
For Congress.	Potter.	Brown.
Oconomowoc,	215	130
Summit,	143	71
Delafield,	171	72
Totals,	531	273

POTTER's majority 258.
(Delafield is BENIAH BROWN's town.)

WASHINGTON COUNTY.—We have the following reports from this "Banner" Democratic county, which, like those from Ozaukee, indicate a much less majority than LARRABEE's friends confidently claimed. We compare the results with those two years ago:

	1856.		1858.
	Billinghurst.	Hobart.	Billinghurst.	Larrabee.
Hartford,	—	47 m.	34 m.
Barton,	—	40 m.	die.
West Bend,	—	64 m.	—	90 m.
Richfield,	—	298 m.	—	150 m.
	449	34	240

In these four town Billinghurst gains 243 over 1856.

WIMER, Independent, elected Sheriff over SHOTTLER, regular democrat.

WALWORTH COUNTY.—We have the following additional returns from Walworth County:

East Troy—(Potter's town) 270 for Potter, 114 for Brown—166 majority.
Troy—Potter 122, Brown 89.
Spring Prairie—Potter 177 majority.

The majority for Potter in the whole county will exceed two thousand.

WASHINGTON AND OZAUKEE.—In these two counties judging from the partial returns received, and flying reports, the aggregate majority for LARRABEE will not exceed 2,500. Two years ago, the majority for HOBART (Dem.) in these counties was about 3,350.

Ozaukee County.

Election Returns.

SENTINEL OFFICE,
2 o'clock a. m., Wednesday.

Owing to the very bad condition of the roads, we have returns but from two towns. We are indebted to M. Kelly, Jr., for the returns from Cadiz, which prove much better than could have been expected of a town that gave Buchanan 5 majority over Fremont in 1856. We feel safe in putting Green county at seven hundred majority for Washburn, and about the same for the county (Republican) ticket, and that, considering the weather, we consider very good work.—Monroe (Green County) Sentinel.

The Sentinel gives the vote of Monroe on Congress, as 812 for WASHBURNE, 191 for DUNN: Cadiz, 49 for WASHBURNE, 28 for DUNN.

WRECK OF THE SCHOONER PILOT—THE CAPTAIN'S STATEMENT.—During the heavy blow of Monday night last, at about twelve o'clock, as the schooner Pilot, Capt. Robert Bell, was approaching the harbor, and was about four miles out, north-east from the light-house, the Captain, fearing that he might not be able to enter the harbor during the blow, cast anchor. A moment after a heavy sea swept over the schooner's deck. It soon becoming evident that the vessel could not live but a short time, Capt. Bell lowered the small boat, and, after several efforts, succeeded in getting his crew, consisting of five men, and himself, into it, and were subsequently rescued by another vessel.

At the time that Capt. Bell and his crew left the Pilot there were also on board the latter a young man by the name of Samuel W. Derickson, who was well known by our business men, and a gentleman from South Haven, Mich., name unknown. The last two were lost with the vessel. The gentleman from South Haven told young Derickson that he thought the schooner would live longer in the storm than the small boat would, and, therefore, the two did not leave the schooner when Capt. Bell and the crew did. Mr. Derickson did, however, conclude to get into the small boat but just at that moment when he was about to take the leap, the schooner sank, carrying Mr. Derickson and his ill fated companion with her. The schooner had on board 80 cords of wood, and was owned by R. P. Derickson, Esq., the father of the young man who was lost with her.—Chicago Tribune, of yesterday.

THE ELECTION IN THIS CITY.—It is with great satisfaction that we are able to announce the glorious republican victory in this city. The whole ticket, with the exception of our sheriff, has received unprecedented majorities in a vote as large as ever given here. Washburn, for Congress, has 234 majority, which is greater than ever given to a republican in this city before; and Dickinson, for Assembly, has 197 majority. —Janesville Gazette, Nov. 3d.

FOR TWO RIVERS.—The steamer Forester leaves every morning, (excepting Sunday), at 7½ o'clock, from same place, for Two Rivers, stopping at Port Washington, Sheboygan and Manitowoc.

Propellers.

FOR BUFFALO.—Aline of propellers run to and from Buffalo, one of which leaves this city daily.

FOR CONNEAUT.—A triweekly line of propellers also run to Ogdensburgh.

GRIFFIN & BRADLEY, at the foot of East Water street, are the Ticket Agents for both of these propeller lines.

FOR GOLLENGWOOD.—A triweekly line of propellers run to Collingwood, stopping at intermediate ports, and leaving this city on Sunday, Wednesday and Friday of each week. L. D. JEROME, Agent.

The Meeting Last Night.

The meeting called at Market Hall last evening, for the purpose of discussing the matter of a celebration, assembled in pretty good numbers, considering the very limited notice given, which was only through the evening papers. It was found, however, that through some misunderstanding, the Hall was otherwise engaged, and it was deemed expedient merely to organize, and adjourn to this evening, appointing a committee to provide a place of meeting.

On motion Dr. HANSON was called to the chair and E. W. CARPENTER appointed Secretary.

On motion a committee of four was appointed to secure a hall for the meeting for the meeting to night, to which time the meeting adjourned. A general feeling prevails for a decided jollification over the election, and how and when it shall be; it is for the people to decide to-night. So turn out all hands. The committee have secured Armory Hall, on Spring street, for the occasion.

LITERARY CLUB.—At the meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association, Tuesday evening, a resolution was adopted, authorizing the formation of a "Literary Club," for the purpose of debates, essays, and such other literary exercises as they may desire to engage in, to be composed of members of the Association, and those whose names have been proposed for membership, to hold regular weekly meetings, independent from the monthly meetings of the Association. Those desirous of engaging in it are requested to meet at the Reading Room, at 7½ o'clock this (Thursday?) evening.

Something of the kind contemplated by the above, has been long needed in this City, and we are glad to see that it is undertaken by this Association; as we can rely, from the character of its members, that it will be conducted in the best manner.

This will form a very attractive feature of the Association, and will contribute much to its efficiency and usefulness, by bringing within its influence a large number of young men, who without this feature, would take little or no interest in the objects of the Association.

THE PRESENT POPULATION OF THIS CITY.—According to the school census, which the law requires to be published the first of September, in each year, the number of pupils between four and twenty years of age, in the city, the first of September, was 13,840. In 1857, the pupils bore the ratio of one to 3.75 of the whole population. If they bear the same ratio this year, (and there is no reason to suppose any material change,) then our present population is 50,058. Last year, the population, according to the school census, was 44,542.

POLICE COURT YESTERDAY.—JAMES O'BRIEN, charged with disorderly conduct, was discharged by direction of City Attorney.

JAMES CLARK, JOHN BUSSER, ALBERT KENSTEN, and ROBERT DOWNY were also discharged.

EDWARD KAVANAUGH, charged with committing assault and battery upon JAMES MCGRATH, was held to bail in the sum of $500 to keep the peace for three months.

EMIL ENICKS was convicted of an assault and battery, and fined $20 and costs.

A SALUTE.—Capt. HARRY BINGHAM trotted out "Young America," yesterday afternoon, and fired a National Salute, for the Republican Committee, in honor of the glorious triumph on Tuesday. Three additional guns were thrown in for the Colonel of the Regiment, Capt. STARK, WEATHER, of the M. L. G., and the Revenue Cutter A. V. Brown and her gentlemanly officers.

GREAT SALE OF CLOTHING AT AUCTION.—The Auction Sale of Clothing at 148 East Water Street will be continued and probably closed today. This sale affords an excellent opportunity to country dealers and others, to procure a stock of fine Clothing at very low prices, as all the goods will be sold without reserve.

☞ It will be borne in mind that ATTER & AGNEW's great sale of Dry Goods, takes place at their Auction Rooms, No. 59 East Water street, this morning at 10 o'clock.

☞ The brig Mariner, bound from Milwaukee for Lake Ontario, with a cargo of wheat and flour, is ashore at White Shoals, in the Straits.

☞ RODNEY'S School Lands and village lots sale takes place this morning, at 10 o'clock; it is a rare opportunity. See advertisement.

Let us Celebrate.

A meeting will be held at Armory Hall tonight, for the purpose of planning a Celebration of the Peple's victory in this county. A general turnut is desired and expected.

FOR SALE.—Read the advertisement of a beautiful solidbrick building for sale, corner of Clinton and Oregon streets, Fifth Ward. Said property is for sale low, on long time, and at a moderate rate of interest, or will be exchanged for other ill property.

CHEROKEE MONEY.—Corrill & Co. state in a card in te Peoria papers, that the entire circulation of the Cherokee Insurance and Banking Company is less than $65,000, and that it will be receied by them at par in payment of certain described indebtedness to them, secured by real estate in part, but mostly by railroad mortgages; nd that they owe their depositors less than $19000, which they intend to pay. The depositors have been partially secured already.

THANKSGIVING.—Thanksgiving has already been announced for the 25th of November in the following states: Maine, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Mississippi, Michigan, Illinois, Iowa and Wisconsin.

Gov. King, of New York, has issued his proclamation for the 18th, and Gov. Packer, of Pennsylvania, for the 18th of the present month.

BREAST-PIN LOST.—Lost, last evening, somewhere between Mr. Van Cott's Jewelry store, and the corner of Oneida and Cass streets, a Lady's CAMEO BREASTPIN. The finder will be liberally rewarded by leaving the same at the Counting Room of the DAILY SENTINEL. oct28d6t

MILWAUKEE:

THURSDAY MORNING, NOV. 4.

PROCLAMATION.

In the good Providence of God another year has passed, and its memories and its fruits have been gathered up. Toward all mankind He has exhibited abundant mercies, and upon us he has showered innumerable blessings. Seed time and harvest came and are gone, and the fat earth hath yielded its great harvests and its fruits, every tree and every plant bearing seed after its kind. His bow has been still in the clouds. His avenging rod has been withheld, and the pestilence that walketh in darkness, and the destruction that wasteth at noonday, have passed by us.

In science and art, and in intellectual development, the whole earth has been astonished at continued and startling successes and achievements. All trades, business avocations, professions and pursuits, have met everywhere with the success they have deserved. In all things commendable and useful, and of good report, we have met the approving smile of our Father who is in Heaven.

The works of the Lord are great, sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.

His work is honorable and glorious, and his righteousness endureth forever.

He hath made His wonderful works to be remembered; the Lord is gracious and full of compassion.

He hath given meat unto them that fear Him; He will ever be mindful of His covenant.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; a good understanding have all they that do His commandments; His praise endureth forever.

For all his bounties and mercies, and loving kindness and care, we owe the homage of grateful, humble and obedient hearts. Following a venerable and wisely inculcated custom, I therefore do here appoint, Thursday, the 25th day of November next, as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer and Praise. And I commend that day to the observance of the good people of this State, enjoining them to abstain therefrom all secular avocations and employments, excepting only works of necessity and mercy.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name, and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed.

L. S. Done at Madison, this 27th day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred fifty-eight.

By the Governor,

ALEX. W. RANDALL.

The Elections on Tuesday.

The November elections in the States of New York, Massachusetts, Illinois, Michigan, New Jersey, and Wisconsin, have resulted, as did those in October, in the disastrous overthrow of the Sham-Democracy, and the merited condemnation of the Buchanan Administration. Everywhere we hear of Republican victories, and of Democratic defeats—victories due to the great principles of Equal Rights and Universal Liberty, advocated by the Republicans; and defeats deserved by the base betrayal of those rights, for which Sham-Democracy stands arraigned before the People of the United States.

We are yet without the full details of these Elections; but there seems little doubt that Massachusetts, Michigan and Wisconsin will present, in the next, as in the present Congress, an unbroken Republican front; and that New York, New Jersey and Illinois will show increased strength on the same side. These are, indeed, auspicious results, and show, that, in spit of all party ties and partisan appeals and damagogue tricks, the great heart of the People beats full and true for Right, Freedom and Humanity!

A Democratic Gain.—Prentiss, republican candidate for Mayor, was elected over Butler, the Democratic candidate, at our late charter election, by about 1,000 majority. Bernan Brown has carried the city now by a small majority, which is a clear gain of over 1,000 in six months. —News of yesterday.

The disposition of the News to be jolly under the circumstances is highly commendable. Its idea of a "clear democratic gain of over 1,000," in our city, is a capital joke. We notice, however, that our Democratic friends don't seem to enjoy it.

A False Charge.—The Chicago Herald, the Buchanan organ of Illinois, thus replies to one of the fabrications of the Daily News:

The Milwaukee News, a disorganizing Douglas sheet, charges that Mr. Noonan, of that city, wrote the Milton letter on "Wisconsin Politics," signed "John Doe," which recently appeared in this paper. We write this to say that Mr Noonan did not write said letter. He never saw it nor knew anything of it until he saw it (if he did see it,) in the columns of the Herald.

THE SLAVERY QUESTION.

Position and Relations of the Democratic and Republican Parties.

SPEECH OF HON. WILLIAM H. SEWARD, DELIVERED AT ROCHESTER, MONDAY, OCT. 25, '58.

Concluded.

The very Constitution of the Democratic Party commits it to execute all the designs of the slaveholders, whatever they may be. It is not a party of the whole Union, of all the Free States and all of the Slave States; nor yet is it a party of the Free States in the North and in the Northwest; but it is a sectional and local party, having, practically, its seat within the Slave States, and counting its constituency chiefly and almost exclusively there. Of all its representatives in Congress and in the electoral colleges, two-thirds uniformly come from those States. Its great element of strength lies in the vote of the slaveholders, augmented by the representation of three fifths of the Slaves. Deprive the Democratic Party of this strength, and it would be a helpless and hopeless minority, incapable of continued organization. The Democratic Party being thus local and sectional, acquires new strength from the admission of every new Slave State, and loses relatively by the admission of every new Free State into the Union. A party is in one sense a joint-stock association, in which those who contribute most direct the action and management of the concern. The slaveholders contributing in an overwhelming proportion to the capital strength of the Democratic Party, they necessarily dictate and prescribe its policy. The inevitable caucus system enables them to do so with a show of fairness and justice. If it were possible to conceive for a moment that the Democratic Party should disobey the behests of the slaveholders, we should then see a withdrawal of the slaveholders, which would leave the party to perish. The portion of the party which is found in the Free States is a mere appendage, convenient to modify its sectional character, without imposing its sectional constitution, and is less effective in regulating its movement than the nebulous tail of the comet is in determining the appointed though apparently eccentric course of the fiery sphere from which it emanates. To expect the Democratic Party to resist Slavery and favor Freedom, is as unreasonable as to look for Protestant missionaries to the Catholic Propaganda of Rome. The history of the Democratic Party commits it to the policy of Slavery. It has been the Democratic Party, and no other agency, which has carried that policy up to its present alarming culmination. Without stopping to ascertain, critically, the origin of the present Democratic Party, we may concede its claim to date from the era of good feeling which occurred under the Administration of President Monroe. At that time in this State, and about that time in many others of the Free States, the Democratic Party deliberately disfranchised the free colored or African citizens, and it has pertinaciously continued this disfranchisement ever since. This was an effective aid to Slavery; for while the slaveholder votes for his slaves against Freedom, the freed slave, in the Free States, is prohibited from voting against Slavery. In 1824, the Democracy resisted the election of John Quincy Adams—himself before that time an acceptable Democrat—and in 1828 it expelled him from the Presidency, and put a slaveholder in his place, although the office had been filled by slaveholders thirty-two out of forty years. In 1836, Martin Van Buren—the first non-slaveholding citizen of a Free State, to whose election the Democratic Party ever consented—signalized his inauguration into the Presidency by a gratuitous announcement that under no circumstances would he approve a bill for abolishing Slavery in the District of Columbia. From 1838 to 1844, the subject of abolishing Slavery in the District of Columbia and in the national dock yards and arsenals, was brought before Congress by repeated popular appeals. The Democratic Party, thereupon promptly denied the right of petition and effectually suppressed the Freedom of Speech in Congress, as far as the institution of Slavery was concerned.

From 1840 to 1843 good and wise men counseled that Texas should remain outside of the Union until she could consent to relinquish her self-instituted Slavery; but the Democratic Party precipitated her admission into the Union, not only without that condition, but even with a covenant that the State might be divided and reorganized so as to constitute four Slave States instead of one.

In 1846, when the United States became involved in a war with Mexico, and it was apparent that the struggle would end in the dismemberment of that Republic, which was a non-slaveholding power, the Democratic Party rejected a declaration that Slavery should not be established within the territory to be acquired. When in 1850, governments were to be instituted in the Territories of California and New Mexico, the fruits of that war, the Democratic party refused to admit New Mexico as a Free State and only consented to admit California as a Free State on the condition, as it has since explained the transaction, of leaving all of New Mexico and Utah open to slavery, to which was also added the concession of perpetual slavery in the District of Columbia, and the passage of an unconstitutional, cruel and humiliating law, for the recapture of fugitive slaves, with a further stipulation that the subject of slavery should never again be agitated in either chamber of Congress. When, in 1854, the slaveholders were contentedly reposing on these great advantages, then so recently won, the Democratic party unnecessarily, officiously and with supererviceable liberality, awaked them from their slumbers, to offer and force on their acceptance the abrogation of the law which declared that neither Slavery nor involuntary servitude should ever exist within that part of the ancient Territory of Louisiana which lay outside of the State of Missouri and north of the parallel of 36° 30′ of north latitude, a law which, with the exception of one other, was the only statute of freedom then remaining in the Federal code.

In 1856, when the people of Kansas had organized a new State within the region thus abandoned to Slavery, and applied to be admitted as a Free State into the Union, the Democratic Party contemptuously rejected their petition, and drove them, with menaces and intimidations, from the halls of Congress, and armed the President with military power to enforce their submission to a slave-code, established over them by fraud and usurpation. At every subsequent stage of the long contest which has since raged in Kansas, the Democratic Party has been sympathetic, its aid, and all the powers of the Government which it controlled, to enforce Slavery upon that unwilling and injured people. And now, even to this day, while it mocks us with the the assurance that Kansas is free, the Democratic Party keeps the State excluded from her just and proper place in the Union, under the hope that she may yet be dragooned into the acceptance of Slavery. The Democratic Party finally has procured from a supreme judiciary, fixed in its interest, a decree that Slavery exists, by force of the Constitution, in every Territory of the United States, paramount to all legislative authority, either within the Territory or residing in Congress.

Such is the Democratic party. It has no policy, State or Federal, for finance, or trade, or manufacture, or commerce, or for education, or internal improvements, or for the protection, or even the security of civil or religious liberty. It is positive and uncompromisingly in the interest of Slavery—negative, compromising and vacillating in regard to everything else. It boasts its love of equality, and wastes its strength and even its life in fortifying the only aristocracy known in the land. It professes fraternity, and so often as Slavery requires, allies itself with proscription. It magnifies itself for conquests in foreign lands, but it sends the national eagle forth always with chains and not the olive branch in his fangs.

The dark record shows you, fellow-citizens, what I was unwilling to announce at an earlier stage of this argument—that of the whole nefarious schedule of slaveholding designs which I have submitted to you, the Democratic party has left only one yet to be consummated—the abrogation of the law which forbids the African Slave trade.

Now, I know very well that the Democratic Party has, at every stage of these proceedings, disavowed the motive and the policy of fortifying and extending Slavery, and has excused them on entirely different and more plausible grounds. But the inconsistency and frivolity of these pleas prove still more conclusively the guilt I charge upon that party. It must indeed necessarily excuse such guilt before mankind, and even to the consciences of its own adherents. There is an instinctive abhorrence of Slavery, and an inborn and inhering love of freedom in the human heart, which render palliation of such gross misconduct indispensible. It disfranchised the free African on the ground of a fear that if left to enjoy the right of suffrage he might seduce the free white citizen into amalgamation with his wronged and depised race. The Democratic Party condemned and deposed John Quincy Adams because he expended twelve millions a year, while it justifies his favored successors in spending seventy millions, eighty millions, and even an hundred millions a year. It denies emancipation in the District of Columbia, even with compensation to masters and the consent of the people, on the ground of an implied constitutional inhibition, although the Constitution expressly confers upon Congress sovereign legislative power in that district, and although the Democratic Party is tenacious of the principles of strict construction. It violated the express provisions of the Constitution in suppressing petition and debate on the subject of Slavery through fear of disturbance of the public harmony, although it claims that the electors have a right to instruct their Representatives, and even demand their resignation in case of contumacy. It extended Slavery over Texas and connived at the attempt to spread it across the Mexican Territories, even to the shores of the Pacific Ocean, under a plea of enlarging the area of Freedom. It abrogated the Mexican slave-law and the Missouri Compromise prohibition of Slavery in Kansas, not to open the new Territories to Slavery, but to try therein the new and fascinating theories of non-intervention and Popular Sovereignty; and, finally it overthrew both these new and elegant systems by the English Lecompton bill and the Dred Scott decision, on the ground that the Free States ought not to enter the Union without a population equal to the representative basis of one member of Congress, although Slave-States might come in without inspection as to their numbers.

Will any member of the Democratic party now here, claim that the authorities chosen by the suffrages of the party, transcended their partisan platforms, and so misrepresented the party in the various transactions I have recited? Then I ask him to name one Democratic statesman or legislator, from Van Buren to Walker, who either timidity or cautiously, like them, or boldly and defiantly, like Douglas, ever refused to execute a behest of the slaveholders, and was not therefore, and for no other cause, immediately denounced, and deposed from his trust, and repudiated by the Democratic party for that contumacy.

I think, fellow citizens, that I have shown you that it is high time for the friends of freedom to rush to the rescue of the Constitution, and that their very first duty is to dismiss the Democratic party from the Administration of the Government. Why shall it not be done? All agree that it ought to be done! What then shall prevent its being done? Nothing but timidity or division of the opponents of the Democratic party. Some of those opponents start one objection and some another. Let us notice these objections briefly. One class say that they cannot trust the Republican party, that it has not avowed its hostility to slavery boldly enough, or its affection for freedom earnestly enough.

I ask in reply, is there any other party which can be more safely trusted? Every one knows that it is the Republican party, or none, that shall displace the Democratic party. But I answer further, that the character and fidelity of any party are determined, necessarily, not by its pledges, programmes and platforms, but by the public exigencies, and the temper of the people when they call it into activity. Subserviency to slavery, is a law written, not only on the foreheed of the Democratic party, but also in its very soul. So resistance to Slavery, and devotion to Freedom, the popular elements now actively working for the Republican party among the people, must and will be the resources for its ever-renewing strength, and constant invigoration.

Others cannot support the Republican Party, because it has not sufficiently exposed its platform and determined what it will do and what it will not do, when triumphant. It may prove too progressive for some and too conservative for others. As if any party ever foresaw so clearly the course of future events as to plan a universal scheme for future action, adapted to all possible emergencies. Who would ever have joined even the Whig Party of the Revolution, if it had not been obliged to answer, in 1775, whether it would declare for Independence in 1776, and for that noble Federal Constitution of ours, in 1787, and not a year earlier or later? The people of the United States will be as wise next year, and the year afterwards, and even ten years hence, as we are now. They will oblige the Republican party to set as the public welfare and the interests of justice and humanity shall require, through all the stages of its career, whether of trial or triumph.

Others will not venture an effort because they fear that the Union would notendure the change. Will such objectors tell me how long a Constitution can bear a strain directly along the fibres of which it is composed? This is a Constitution of Freedom. It is being converted into a Constitution of Slavery. It is a Republican Constitution. It is being made an Aristocratic one. Others may wish to wait until some collateral questions concerning temperance or the exercise of the elective franchise are properly settled. Let me ask such a person, whether time enough has not been wasted on these points already, without gaining any other than the single advantage, namely: the discovery that only one thing can be effectually done at one time, and that the one thing which must and will be done at any one time is just that thing which is most urgent and will no longer admit of postponement or delay. Finally, we are told by faint-hearted men that they despond; the Democratic party they say is unconquerable, and the dominion of Slavery is consequently inevitable. I reply to them that the conquest and universal dominion of Slavery would be intolerable enough when it should have come after the last possible effort at escape should have been made. There would in that case be left to us the consoling reflection of fidelity to duty.

But I reply further, that I know—few I think know better than I—the resources and the energies of the Democratic Party, which is identical with the Slave Power. I do emple prestige to its traditional popularity. I know further—few I think know better than I—the disadvantages and difficulties of organizing a new political force like the Republican Party, and the obstacles it must encounter in laboring without prestige and without patronage. But notwithstanding all this, I know that the Democratic Party must go down, and the Republican Party must rise into its place. The Democratic Party derived its strength originally from its adoption of the principles of equal and exact justice to all men. So long as it practiced this principle faithfully, it was invulnerable. It became vulnerable when it renounced it and since that time it has maintained itself, not by virtue of its own strength, or even of its traditional merits, but because there as yet had appeared in the political field no other party that had the conscience and the courage to take up and avow and practice the life-inspiring principle which the Democratic Party had surrendered. At last the Republican Party has appeared. It avows now, as the Republican Party 1800 did, in one word, its faith and its works: "Equal and exact justice to all men." Even when it first entered the field, only half organized, it struck a blow which only just failed to secure a complete and triumphant victory. In this, its second campaign, it has already won advantages which render that triumph now both easy and certain.

The secret of its assured success lies in the very characteristic, which in the mouth of scoffers constitutes its great and lasting imbecility and reproach. It lies in the fact that it is a party of one idea; but that idea is a noble one—an idea that fills and expands all generous souls; the idea of equality—the equality of all men before human tribunals and human laws, as they are all equal before the Divine Tribunal and Divine Laws.

I know, and you know, that a revolution has begun. I know, and all the world knows, that revolutions never go backward. Twenty Senators and a hundred Representatives proclaim boldly in Congress to-day, sentiments and opinions and principles of freedom which hardly so many men, even in this free State, dared to utter in their own homes twenty years ago. While the Government of the United States, under the conduct of the Democratic party, has been all that time surrendering one plain and castle after another to Slavery, the People of the United States have been no less steadily and perseveringly gathering together before the forces, with which to recover back again all the fields and all the castles which have been lost, and to confound and overthrow, by one decisive blow, the betrayers of the Constitution and of freedom forever.

Mr. Longfellow in England.—The London Critic, in a favorable review of Mr. Longfellow's new poem, "The Courtship of Miles Standish," which has a great sale in England, thus accounts for what it terms the American poet's "not easily definable most emphatic and peculiar success, embodied in the expression popularity:"

"He has long been the poet of our average 'young people,' cultivated, though not in the highest degree, for whom Tennyson is too enigmatic, and the "spasmodists" too irregular, turbulent and mystical. He owes his success to his grace, polish and melody; to his ready intelligibility; to the innocent purity of his sentiment; to his skill in illustrating human action and passion, by the introduction of a natural imagery; and to his embodiment of a vague religious and ethical feeling in a secular and poetic phraseology wedded to harmonious numbers. It is in this last respect that he has distanced the British poet, whom in other things he most, perhaps, resembles the—author of the "Pleasures of Hope." Inferior to Campbell in the gift common to both—feebler, less impassioned, and less concise, Longfellow has participated in the spiritual influences widely dominant with the new generation. Moralists may condemn the over-strained asceticism of "Excelsior," and critics may laugh at the broken metaphors of "The Psalm of Life," but in poems like these, Longfellow has known how to strike a chord ever ready to viberate in our modern breasts, and to which the Campbells of the past age did not, and indeed could not appeal.

Washington Gossip.—The "Occasional" correspondent of Forney's paper writes:

The amount of money expended on Lecompton newspapers, out of the Treasury, if stated accurately to the people, would hardly be believed. I would not be surprised if it would build magnificent post-offices for Philadelphia, New York and Boston. This fact alone goes to show what a desparate cause it is which requires such expedients. The very newspapers sustained by these bounties are deserted by the people, and they are now rapidly sinking into decline.

It is stated that Bigler does not make any hesitation in denouncing the appointment of Glancy Jones as a most unfortunate step on the part of the Administration. He has been pretty public in his censures to everybody, except to the President.

Horrible Murder in Minnesota.—We extract from the St. Peter Free Press the following account of a most brutal murder committed a few days since near Lexington, Le Sauer county, Minnesota. The Free Press says:

"A Mr Bordell, who was a stranger in this State, but who has friends residing in Winona, came to Lexington in search of a farm. He there met with Mr. J. C. Rinehart, who has a farm in the neighborhood, and was induced to go with him to examine it. He was not seen again, though Rinehart remained about the place for several days. The stranger's absence excited no alarm there, though he told the family with whom he was stopping, that he would return at night; they naturally supposed he had gone to see some other land. His friend in Winona, however, became alarmed at his not returning there according to promise, and set on to hunt him up.

"After a brief search his body was found buried. He had evidently been beaten murdered, having been shot through the head, his skull broken in, and his throat cut so almost to sever the head from the body. Suspicion at once fell upon Rinehart, who had left in the meantime; and the suspicion was heightened by the fact that about the time of the murder, he borrowed a shovel of a neighbor, alleging that he wanted to dig a ditch with it. The discovery of the murder created intense excitement at Lexington. Three hundred dollars were at once raised by the citizens, and the Sheriff at oce dispatched for Rinehart, who was supposed to have gone to St. Paul, and possibly down the river.

"Mr. Rinehart came to this State from Ohio, and had fall removed to this town, there for a short time he worked in this office. During the winter he went into a saloon which he has continued here until the present time. He has a wife who is spoken of as a fine woman, and also two small children. These he sent East some six weeks ago, since which time he he been at St. Paul. He has other relatives here, and has himself always borne a good character.

Rinehart was pursued by the Sheriff of Le Sueur county, and arrested at La Crescent, at which place he was about to open a saloon. On being informed that he was suspected of the murder, he said at once that he would return to the place. He was brought to St. Paul Sunday, and placed in charge of the officers, temporarily. He seemed very unconcerned about it, asserts his utter ignorance of the whole matter, and has taken measures to prove his innocence.

More Cable.—The Journal of Commerce says: "Those gentlemen and ladies in the habit of wearing charms on their chains and chatelaines, will start with delight when they learn that the rope which surrounded the ring or enclosure in which Morrissey and Heenan fought, has been bought by a distinguished gentleman of Buffalo, and in a short time, will be cut up, set in gold, silver, or brass, and sold to all gentlemen and ladies who desire a memento of the battle. Those portions of it that became bloody during the contest, will of course realize a higher price.

☞ A Wonderful Remedy.—Mr. B. D. Woods, late Justice of the Peace, East Birmingham, Pa., says:

"I have been afflicted with a disease of the stomach, palpitation of the heart and nervous headache, for nearly fifteen years, and have spent some hundreds of dollars in order to effect a cure, but to no purpose. After having used three bottles of your Holland Bitters, I feel myself entirely restored. I can eat and sleep well, and attend to my business with pleasure, and would therefore recommend it to those who are similarly afflicted."

The Black Cat—A French Story.
From the Gazette des Tribunaux.

In the village of Carnott, in the neighborhood of Loriont, there lived a few years ago, a poor widow by the name of Roperch. She cultivated a small farm, for which she paid a yearly rent of 225 francs, and the proceeds of which afforded her a scanty living. At that time she was in want of 10 francs, and borrowed them and repaid them punctually. Some weeks later she borrowed again 60 francs, in order to purchase a cow.—When these 60 francs became due she found it out of her power to repay them out of her earnings, and borrowed the money of somebody else, who charged her a very high rate of interest. The heavy obligation which was incurred by this transaction did not trouble her mind much; she took it easy, having discovered that in order to get along, and perpetuate this situation, it was sufficient to borrow larger and larger sums, and to repay capital and interest by the proceeds of new loans. She took this course with a will, and continued in it for ten years with uncommon success.

Her very neighbors, who had been her first lenders, commenced soon to build up a strange reputation for her. As they always and regularly received back the sums they had lent her, with big interest, they offered new loans on their own accord, and spread the Report that the widow Roperch borrowed of everybody, never refused an offer of money, settled promptly and paid large interest. It did not take long before the widow Roperch was spared the necessity of making a step across the threshold in order to obtain money; the accommodators flocked in spontaneously, uncalled for, and brought sums, which grew larger and larger. At that time, the interest charged was 5 per cent a month; at a later period leaders took as much as 10 per cent a month.

Now, you ask, how could this poor women inspire her numerous clients with any confidence? It is really hard to tell. A part of them seem to have been seduced by a ridiculous suspicion.—They believed that the woman was in possession of the black cat. The common people in France believe that the black cat is the money devil, and a full cousin of the supreme devil himself, and that he who owns it can command as much money as he pleases, and has it in his power to make friends as rich as he wishes them to be. So the few words, "she has the black cat," were a sufficient explanation of the loans she made, and the interest shepaid, and quieted every misgiving. It appears that the widow carefully nursed this stupid credulity. It is true that her cat was white and not black, but on the other hand, when interrogated, she never denied its magic powers, and did not even object to being called "the black cat" herself. Whenever she received a loan, she made it a point to pay always a month's interest in advance, at the rate of from 60 to 120 per cent. a year; but she always took care to take this interest money out of a particular bag, which lay invariably under the cover at the foot of the bed, and this manœuver, of course, confirmed the belief that she drew money from a secret source.

Other lenders, strong-minded free-thinkers, who had no faith in the black cat story, believed firmly that the widow was connected with a powerful company, or that the money borrowed by her went to the government, and was used in the public works. The widow never contradicted these reports; she even spoke several times of "her partners," but, on being asked what line of business she was engaged in, she constantly answered, "That is my secret."

The excitement in the lenders was kept saging principally by the interest; it was natural for them not to insist upon the discovery of the secret of a borrower, who paid the interest in advance at the rate of 5 and 10 per cent. a month, and who always repaid the principal on call—Fortunes accumulated rapidly in Carnott; day laborers became capitalists, vegetable vendors bought country seats. Money rushed upon the widow from all sides. However, she did not use it to improve her way of living or her outside appearance; she continued to work her little farm, and went to market as she always did before, to sell her milk and butter. There in the market many offers of money were made to her; many lenders would place in her hands or in her basket considerable sums, without even stipulating any terms, and even without telling her their names. A confectioner handed her 4,000 francs; others gave her even as much as 16,000 francs in one sum. The giving of a receipt was always out of the question, as the widow could neither read nor write. She always paid upon her simple promise.

Greed at last knew no limits. One lender stated that in consequence of these loans he already enjoyed an income of 500 francs, but that he would not be satisfied, until he could raise it to 24,000 francs a year.

During ten years there operations continued without interruptions. But in 1857, the restitution of the small sum of 400 francs being asked from her, she could not pay it, and in the despair of the embarrassment rose from her chair and attempted to jump into the well. The bystanders prevented her, succeeded in quieting her mind, and no suit being commenced on this occurence, her credit with the lenders was soon repaired. The rumor spread that the officers of justice protected the black cat, and new loans were effected. But at last the bubble burst.—She had again to repudiate some payments, was tried in the civil and criminal courts and convicted.

Though a very conceivable feeling of shame prevented many lenders from filing their claims the number of the victims who presented themselves was quite large, and the deficit proved amounted to 90,000 francs. Then a violent exasperation seized the greedy lenders, who saw their usurious hopes destroyed. Even before her arrest, the widow had to call upon the gendarmerie for protection against a furious mob, who threatened her life. Her garden was ravaged and dug up to the depth of several feet in order to find the hidden treasure, but in vain; and even now, after the trial is over, it is neither proved nor probable that the widow has made a single sou by her operations. The trial of this affair before the court of Lorient lasted thirteen days. The widow Roperch has been sentenced to five years' imprisonment.

R. R. R.
THE IMPORTANCE OF REGULARITY.—It is highly important that mankind should observe strict regularity in all the affairs of life. Regularity induces health—Irregularity produces disease. Most people are particular about eating at regular hours—retiring to rest at regular hours—rising at a regular time—and we should be equally as particular about discharging, from the bowels, the fecal and acrimon out humors of the body at a regular hour—to empty the bowels of their contents at a regular time. If mankind would observe this great and important duty, and prepare their bowels to more regularity, they would avoid much sickness. Radway's Regulators induce Regularity. They regulate every organ to regular action. The Liver, Pancreas, Kidneys, Heart, Skin, Bowels, and all other organs, will, after the action of Radway's Regulators, move with all the regularity of clock work. Persons troubled with Costiveness, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, &c., will find, that, by taking one of Radway's Regulators every night, on going to bed, they will have a pleasant discharge of the bowels in the morning at a regular period of time. One Regulator will regulate—three will purge.

TO THE PUBLIC.
In answer to the numerous letters addressed to me on the subject of the Mustang Liniment, I would say that I have had no connection with that article for several years. It was invented by me, and while put up under my control and supervision, was universally accepted by the public as the best liniment in the world. In 1851 I sold out my interest in it to other parties, and since that time it has passed through the hands of several persons, most of whom have been so unscrupulous as to manufacture an inferior and cheaper article, and thus to entirely destroy its value as a medical remedy, causing for success in selling to its former highly established reputation. Its present proprietors have gone so far as to mislead the other public in its name of any other Bragg's Liniment as an imposition. This is done with a view of exciting a prejudice against "BRAGG'S ARCTIC LINIMENT," an article more recently invented by me, and possessing all the virtues of the old Mustang, with some improvements—the result of experience and later discoveries—and manufactured by Bragg & Burrows, which former is composed of my son, Oliver T. Bragg, and Michael Burrows. This article is superior in many respects to the Mustang, when it was put up pure and in good faith, and is immeasurably superior to the article now vended as the Mustang Liniment. It is also the only liniment in the United States which my name is appended by my authority or consent. In conclusion, I cannot hold myself responsible for any of the evils resulting from the Mustang Liniment now vended, and especially after this public disclaimer of any connection with its proprietorship or manufacture.
Respectfully, T. M. BRAGG, M. D.

MOTHERS! MOTHERS! MOTHERS!
DON'T FAIL to procure Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. It has no equal on earth. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and relief and health to your infants. Perfectly safe in all cases.
This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most experienced and skillful female Physicians in New England, and has been used with never-failing success in millions of cases.
We believe it the best and surest remedy in the world, in all cases of Dysentery and Diarrhœa in children, whether it arise from teething or from any other cause.
If life and health can be estimated by dollars and cents, it is worth its weight in gold.
Millions of bottles are sold every year in the United States. It is an old and well-tried remedy.

☞ FRIENDS OF HUMANITY,—To you (always disposed to aid the suffering) it may appear incredible after in vain trying all the "wonderful" medicines of the day, that one application externally, and a few drops taken internally, of my (genuine) "Arcadian Oil," which will so very suddenly restore the sufferer from the most violent pains; yet it is a fact, as testified to by good men and good women, whose names are at my office.
Not any have used it without deriving some special benefit within an hour, any many are they who have been perfectly cured of Rheumatism, Neuralgia Spinal, and Bronchial complaints, Croup, Tic Doloureux, Cramps, Pains, Piles, Sprains and Bruises, Cuts and Wounds, Swelled Glands and Stiff Joints, Scrofula and Erysipelas, Sore Nipples and Swell of Breast, Salt Rheum and Cancer in the Mouth, Sore Throat, Quinsy, Sore Eyes and Sores, (Headache and Toothache in five to ten minutes); also, Chilblains and Sore or Tender feet. It will be seen that I do not profess to cure everything, but only a certain class of complaints. Croup, Tic Doloureux, on simple Electric and Chemical principles, through the affinities of my "Electric Oil" and the Nervo-vital Fluid of the human body.
The modus operandi of progressing and ever changeable Rheumatic pain, is imperiectly understood by mankind, whether its location is the membrane or covering of the nerves, it is caused by derangement, like the counting of an infirmed stomach, or some disturbance of the electric fluid itself; certain it is that my "Electric Oil" is readily absorbed into, if it does not actually supply a needed deficiency in, and equalize the circulation of that great principle of human organization.
Let the skeptical and the humane look into this matter—for if these are so, all are alike interested. I will take any case from the hospital in the city. My "Electric Oil" is pleasant and in nocent; no danger of cold or re-action, as ah will bear me witness. Come and see for yourself—near Chestnut street, 89 South Eighth street. 50 cents and $1 per bottle.
PROF. CHAS. DE GRATH.
☞ None sold by pedlars. On the 15th inst. all my bottles will have my name blown in and the new wrappers will bear my written signature, to prevent imposition on the public.
☞ For sale by Bosworth & Sons, and J. H. Tesch, Milwaukee; Fahnestock & Davis, and Reed & Co., Chicago; and by Druggists and Merchants generally throughout the country. nov3 1aw1w

CHICAGO MARKET.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.

The attendance on 'Change to-day was not much better than yesterday's, and politics and election returns divided, or rather monopolized, the attention and conversation of the parties. In respect of the Grain Market is improving, and prices advancing. Holders are very firm, and while there are, as yet, but few transactions, the feeling is much better. No. 2 Red Winter sold at 88a90c was freely offered this morning, and 1,0 paid in one or two cases, while 1,8 was offered and refused for a straight cargo free on board. Spring Wheat opened the week 2c for No. 2 to arrive and shipped, but since New York advices caused holders to insist on a still further advance and 85,4a87c was asked at close of 'Change. The sales foot up about 1,000 bus at 87c.

Corn very quiet, but firmer, with no sales reported Oats quiet at former rates. Rye and Barley unchanged Flour dull and lower, and no transactions reported to-day and Lake Freights are nominal.—Journal of last evening.
